

Spring 2021 Teaching & Learning Symposium Resources

Keynote: Bryan Dewsbury

The following notes contain links to outside resources and books that might be of use and interest.

Thursday, March 18, 2021

Confluence (Confluence is a seminar video series with the explicit aim of introducing undergraduates to the lives and work of researchers in the field of biology.)

Zip Code Destiny: The Persistent Power of place and outcomes

- Podcast
- The Opportunity Atlas

Place matters in Lincoln, Nebraska

Eli Review – software for active learning in class

Book suggestions

- Race for Profit: How Banks and the Real Estate Industry Undermined Black Homeownership
- Heartland: A Memoir of Working Hard and Being Broke in the Richest Country on Earth
- No Matter How Loud I Shout: A Year in the Life of Juvenile Court

Friday, March 19, 2021

Open Educational Resources

- <https://openstax.org/>
- <https://www.oercommons.org/>

Book suggestions

- “Americana”
- “Quiet: The Power of Introverts in a World That Can't Stop Talking”